DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1, 2, 11-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lawson, Jr. (6,631,925).

Lawson, Jr. teaches a vehicle comprising a frame; a straddle-type seat 26 disposed on the frame; an engine 40 supported by the frame; at least three wheels suspended on the frame, a first wheel being at a front and a second wheel being at a rear of the frame, wherein at least one of the three wheels is operatively driven by the engine; a steering shaft 34 operatively connected to at least one of the three wheels; and a steering bracket (adjacent 64) that supports the steering shaft in a plurality of selective positions. The steering bracket includes a plurality of holes (each end of the bracket), each pair defining a selected position of the steering shaft.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 3-10 and 16-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
